

Break the Ceiling Touch the Sky® 2019

The Success and Leadership Summit for Women®
March 4, 2019 | Shangri-La Hotel, Sydney

ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY SHOW YOUR WOMEN LEADERS AND YOUR MALE CHAMPIONS FOR DIVERSITY THAT YOUR COMPANY TRULY CARES.

The 2019 ANZ Edition of Break the ceiling touch the sky®- the success and leadership summit for women® is a high-impact, one-day program that focuses on enabling women leaders (and male champions for diversity) with best practices related to gender diversity, leadership and success that have a direct impact on their organizations and their own success. Break the ceiling touch the sky® is the only truly international forum, supported by learnings and insights gathered across summit editions in Australia, Singapore, Dubai, India, USA and access to best practices from over 200 of the world's most influential Companies. This enables international experience and local knowledge to be available in equal measure to participants at the summit. The 2019 Australia-New Zealand edition of Break the ceiling touch the sky® shares best learnings in areas that are critically important for the acceleration of gender diversity in Australia – success secrets of the most inspirational leaders, best practices from the world's best employer brands (career planning, flexible policies, workplaces devoid of sexual harassment), dealing with unconscious bias, etc. The summit is designed for participation from Senior Managers, Directors and Vice Presidents across functions. Summit discussions and keynotes are led by the world's best C-suite executives. The summit includes House of Rose Professional's customized speed mentoring module. The summit is inspired by the love of a son (former Walmart and P&G executive Anthony A. Rose) for his late mother and a book Anthony wrote in her memory in 2014. In 2015 the book evolved into Break the ceiling touch the sky®- the success and leadership summit for women®. Since 2015, the summit has helped enhance the skills of several thousand senior women leaders and many male champions from 200 organizations and 30 countries. Over 300 C Suite leaders will lead the Break the ceiling touch the sky® movement across the world in 2019 as speakers and mentors in 2019.
